The 7th International Conference on Power Electronics Systems and Application (PESA) will be held in December 2017 in Hong Kong. This three-day conference focuses on the recent research and the industrial projects of power electronics and related technology.

The conference aims to be a key international forum for the exchange and dissemination of technical information on power electronics among academics and practicing engineers in the field.

The coming conference features technical presentations and panel discussion sessions. The technical presentations will be presented by eminent academics, engineers and managers around the world and will cover topics of current interest in the area of static power conversion, machines, drives, traction, devices, simulation, and energy saving. The panel discussion sessions will provide an open forum for exchanging ideas on the recent development, applications and new standards in power electronics.

This year the theme is “Smart Mobility, Power Transfer & Security”, which aims to explore the near future new energy processing for applications and research in the field. Selected papers will be published in the Asian Power Electronics Journal.

Topics:

- Electric Mobility
- Power Converters
- Magnetics & Capacitors design
- Distributed Generation & Energy Storage
